

Tallowood High Country Cabin Chalk Road, Carneys Creek

Tallowood High Country is a one-bedroom self-contained solar powered cabin.

Solar Power (24 volt) supplies power for the lighting, refrigeration and water pump. There is a wood burning stove for cooking, heating and hot water. A gas stove is also available for cooking on the veranda. The wood stove needs to be kept alight for a minimum of 3-4 hours to obtain hot water. Plenty of wood is supplied at the bottom gate.

All linen, crockery and cutlery is supplied.

The cabin yard is fully-fenced and a water hose is available on the corner of the cabin to water the dogs. Water is supplied from a rain water tank, so please be mindful when using water.

The outdoor fireplace in the top corner of the cabin yard is very relaxing in the late afternoon and early evenings.

All you need to take is your food and drinks for a great relaxing country holiday.

During wet conditions access is only by way of 4WD vehicle.
