The epitome of sophisticated rural living!

Contemporary design in a beautiful rural setting, this will suit the most discerning buyer. Upon entering the property through the electric gate and long concrete driveway you know this is going to be special. Owners' attention to detail can be seen throughout the entire property with faultless execution.

Constructed in 2019 by a well renowned local builder the palatial home features luxury appointments and is an entertainer's dream. With large open plan living spaces that flow to a generous alfresco area that offers some of the best views you will see. Having a large, combined lounge dining area, separate media room and kid's retreat, there are several living options. The home has four generous bedrooms & study, the master has black out blinds, a huge walk-in robe and ensuite. Spotted gum floors and high ceilings are a feature and there is ducted air through out. The kitchen must be seen to be believed and has stone bench tops, huge pantry, fully integrated fridge/freezer & dishwasher as well as multi-function Zip tap (sparkling, boiling, chilled, hot & cold water at the push of a button!). Outdoor
