The Best Highgrove Has To Offer

This one truly is neat as a pin!

Lowset at the front and highset at the back, providing very accommodating house layout with beautiful views. The house is low maintenance with an attached garage and internal stairs between levels. Stress less and use it as a 3 bed 1 bath or for the expanding family utilise downstairs and have it as a 4 bed 2 bath. It even has the possibility for separate living arrangements.

One thing that can't be forgotten is the access to the back yard, you have the ability to drive around the whole house making it one of the most user-friendly blocks in all of Boonah. Moving onto the house itself, it is made from a nice colour brick and provides a lot more character than many other brick homes. The inside is very spacious and would be a great area to have the family over for Christmas. The new owners will get to enjoy the benefit of many recent improvements/upgrades to the home!
