A near level 1057m2 corner block houses this quaint worker's cottage. The character home features polished timber floors, high ceilings, vj walls, air-con & ceiling fans. There are 2 spacious bedrooms, office, tidy bathroom with large shower and modern Laminex eat-in kitchen with great walk-in pantry. A lovely full length front verandah offers exceptional views across farmland to the mountains. An attached carport keeps the vehicle out of the weather but also doubles as a great entertaining space complete with fireplace. The fully fenced block has good street access and would easily house a large shed. Located on the edge of town in a handy location this property will suit a range of Buyers and has been priced to meet today's market.
