Make This Your Dream property.

Are you looking for a lifestyle change, a weekender property or just somewhere to escape the hustle and bustle, then this will tick some boxes. In the heart of the picturesque Scenic Rim is this lovely 194 acres approximately 5 minutes from Aratula with bitumen road access. The property has an old timber house and the country is mainly timbered with some open pockets of lovely grassed areas with picturesque views. There are also numerous old farm sheds, water for the property is supplied via 2 dams and there is an old windmill currently not in use. The perfect site to invite the friends to bring the van and camp, ride motor bikes or even shoot some clays, it will cater for your lifestyle needs. For the hobby farmer the land has the ability to run some livestock. With plenty to do in the area Lake Moogerah and Lake Maroon are right on your doorstep and many National parks for the keen hikers only a short drive away. There are plenty of cafes, restaurants, shops, museums, wineries, and boutique breweries etc to see in the area also. A must see, contact agent to book an inspection today.
