Established properties of this size and nature are very hard to come by now. An impressive federation home sits high on the hill looking over the entire farm and out towards the magic mountain views. Views that you will see through every window in the house. If you're in the market for something special, well this is for you.

First time offered to market this home will impress you with its high ceilings, timber floors, open fire place, large rooms and pleasant verandas. The master bedroom includes a bay window, air conditioning and a large walk-in robe. All the other bedrooms include an aircon unit and built-in robes. The main feature though is the beautiful lounge/living/dining area, enjoy many family and friend gatherings while you look out at the magic views or sit by the fire.

The farm which was originally set up for horses includes several paddocks all with access
