

28 Park Street Boonah, QLD

1725m2 with Circa Early 1900's Character Home

Only a short stroll to the main street of Boonah you will find a magnificent home with outstanding views overlooking the beautiful township. When you walk into this home you will feel a sense of love. Everything speaks to you with rich history, not many will know which part came first and which part came last but one thing is for sure, nothing like this can be replicated today to the standard and quality that it is. The traditional features include polished pine floorboards, crows ash veranda boards, VJ walls and ceilings, 11ft ceilings, celling roses throughout, French doors, casement windows and fret work.

An impressive site on 1725m2 with the huge 3-bedroom/2-bathroom home. Inside the house you will find the main bedroom relishes extra room for cupboards, a ceiling fan and a bonus separate half ensuite. The other two bedrooms are still very generous sizes, both with modern ceiling fans installed. Now, take a look at the impressive main lounge and dining space that flows further into the spacious timber kitchen. In the kitchen the new owners will e
